

A Closer Look At Long Sentences EXERCISES ANSWER KEY

PART I.

'If Turkey can put to bid a project to supply its schools with 15M tablets, with the requirement that the maker assembles* the tablets in Turkey, then why can't the US get tablets assembled in the US?'

1. What is the requirement that 15M tablets for Turkish schools are supplied?

that the maker assembles the tablets in Turkey

2. Are the tablets in the US assembled in the US?

No. (The person questions why it is not).

PART II.

--3-- and how their performances will help people "understand the true story" much better than

--2-- they start talking about "all the research" they have done

--4-- if it were presented in some dull old book or musty lecture theatre

--1-- whenever actors are interviewed about their roles in historical films or plays

Whenever actors are interviewed about their roles in historical films or plays, they start talking about "all the research" they have done, and how their performances will help people "understand the true story" much better than if it were presented in some dull old book or musty lecture theatre.

PART III.

The latest scandal is backed up with intimate photos. (passive)

The latest scandal details Angelina's bizarre relationship with secret lover Anton Sneider. (active)

Backed up (V3) with intimate photos, the latest scandal details Angelina's bizarre relationship with secret lover Anton Sneider (whose full name has never before been revealed).

or

Detailing (Ving) Angelina's bizarre relationship with secret lover Anton Sneider (whose full name has never before been revealed), the latest scandal is backed up with intimate photos.