2. identifying points of reference
3. guessing the meaning of unknown words
4. strengthening the use of different types of dictionaries
5. identifying figurative speech
6. making inferences from a reading text
7. distinguishing between facts and opinions
8. identifying the writer’s technique
9. deducing the underlying meaning in sentences or parts of a text
10. identifying key ideas in a text
11. recognizing the relationship between ideas in a text
12. recognizing the relationship between multiple texts
13. evaluating and reflecting on the ideas in a text
14. reacting to the ideas in a text
15. understanding long complex sentences

LISTENING
1. listening for specific information
2. listening for main ideas
3. listening for implied ideas

SPEAKING
1. initiating and maintaining discussions
2. expressing an opinion
3. asking for clarification
4. asking questions
5. debating
6. giving reasons
7. describing a photograph /picture

WRITING
1. writing an expository paragraph
2. writing a reaction paragraph
3. writing an expository essay
4. learning, internalizing and carrying out the stages in a process writing approach (while writing paragraphs and/or essays)
5. using correct, appropriate language structures, vocabulary and discourse markers

★ COURSE MATERIAL:
- Textbook:
  Gülşen,G., Hasanbaşoğlu,B., Şesen,E., & Tokdemir,G. (2014). The Compass: Route to Academic English I

- The expository essay and paragraphs must be written in class. If you are absent on those days, you will not be allowed to write them afterwards (unless you are sick AND have an official medical report).
- If you fail to submit the expository essay, you will not be allowed to take any other graded component of the course. You will receive an NA grade.
- If you have not taken the midterm exam, you will not be allowed to take any other graded component of the course. You will receive an NA grade.
- You will not be given a make-up if you miss the midterm exam, the final exam or any in-class graded task (IDT or speaking) unless you are sick AND have an official medical report.

(Note: The make-up midterm exam will be given within 7-10 days after the midterm exam. Students who will take this exam must see the Department of Modern Languages administration and hand in their official medical report themselves at least a couple of days prior to the make-up exam).

Important!

- Turnitin submission is required for the expository essay. You will need a class ID and enrolment password to be able to upload (submit) your expository essay to turnitin.com. This information will be provided by your instructor. (Please see http://www.mld.metu.edu.tr/node/201 for Turnitin submission procedures).
- If you fail to upload your essay to turnitin.com, it will not be graded and you will receive ‘zero’ (out of 12.5) for the essay assignment.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

- If turnitin.com detects plagiarism in your essay, you will be penalized based on the plagiarism policy of Department of Modern Languages.

METU Department of Modern Languages (MLD) regards academic honesty as the foundation of teaching, learning and research. It requires all students to observe the highest ethical standards in all aspects of their academic work. Plagiarism is the reproduction of someone else’s words or ideas without proper referencing. There are many forms of plagiarism but the most common ones include:

- direct lifting of entire essays from the Internet or books;
- taking parts of essays found on the Internet or in books without giving a proper reference;
- presenting other students’ essays, presentations or other assessable work as if one’s own production.

It is the responsibility of students to acquire a clear understanding of how to avoid unethical practices. Students who engage in unethical practices; who cheat in examinations, essays or any other assessable work; and who conspire with others to procure such a result will become subject to disciplinary procedures.

(For further information, please see http://www.mld.metu.edu.tr/sites/default/files/PlagiarismPolicy.pdf ).

ATTENDANCE:

You are allowed 12 hours of absence. You will get an NA grade if you exceed this limit.

It is your own responsibility to catch up to the class and to make up for any work done during your absence. Missing the class does not excuse you from not turning in assignments.
