ENG 311 Final Examination

Date: January 17, 2014

Time and Place: To be announced by class instructors and at MLD.

Students must go to the exam hall at least 15 minutes before the exam starts. If you are late, you will NOT be allowed to take the listening part of the exam.

Total points: 30

Objectives: The purpose of the exam is to assess students’:
  - ability to evaluate information from listening
  - ability to make inferences from spoken context
  - ability to use appropriate spoken discourse patterns and markers in a variety of professional situations
  - awareness of cultural differences in the world of business
  - awareness of ethical values in the world of business
  - competency in job/graduate program application contexts, including written documents and oral interviews
  - competency in language areas (structures and vocabulary) within the job search and work environment contexts

Content of the Final Examination:

Part I. While Listening: In this section, you will listen to a recording once and answer several questions on your exam booklet.

Part II. The Workplace: In this section, you will answer questions about the workplace.

Part III. Use of English
  A. In this section, you will fill in the blanks in a cover letter with suitable prepositions.
  B. In this section, you will in the blanks with suitable vocabulary from a list.

Part IV. Socializing: In this section, you will write dialogues using appropriate expressions used in social interactions.

Part V. Applying for a job/graduate study: In this section, your knowledge of application form questions will be tested.